

VISITING RABBIS ARE BANQUETED BY D. C. BRETHREN

Speaker Says Loyalty
Of Jesus in U. S.
Positive.

"To be an American is to have freedom of spirit, coupled with faith."

Thus did Dr. Leo M. Franklin, president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, give expression to the ideal man in his talk last night to delegates to the conference who were banqueted by the Washington Hebrew Congregation in the Washington Hotel.

"And I claim that the freedom of America, combined with the convictions of the Jewish faith, make in a Jew a genuine American," he continued. "Within the new year there will be evident a new type, who will have these elements and give expression to them."

Among the other speakers were Justice Wendell P. Stafford, of the Supreme Court of the District, who, in observance of the fifty-sixth anniversary of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, eulogized the President-martyr. Justice Stafford read a poem of his own composition paying tribute to the Emancipator.

Representative Julius Kahn, of California, and Mrs. Joseph Wiesenfeld made short addresses. Dr. Abram Simon, toastmaster, beckoned the assembly of several hundred to stand, asked for a "toast with unfettered, sacred, mental, democratic water to the President of our country, Warren G. Harding." Meanwhile the band played "America."

Council to Give Hornpipes, Jigs And Irish Songs

Modern dancing will give way to real old Irish reels, jigs and hornpipes at Gonzaga Hall tonight when the Padriac Pearse Irish Council will present a program entitled "Ireland, in Song, Dance and Story."

It will be a typical Irish entertainment in which children, young men and women will play a prominent part. There will be a one-act play depicting the Return of Orlagh, the Caoch (blind) Piper, a fairy story of old Ireland. The entertainment will also be the first public exhibition by the pupils of Gaelic dancing, which was revived at Gonzaga Hall three months ago. Music for the dances will be furnished by an Irish bagpiper.

One hundred and fifty youngsters will take part in the soldier song. Among those on the program are Frank Little, the 12-year-old soprano of St. Aloysius parish, Sylvester Reilly, Maurice Curtin, Thomas Green and Martin Hickey. The program will be repeated Saturday night.

CORCORAN GALLERY SHOWS NEW ARRAY

Photographs of nearly 100 cathedrals, each with a different style of architectural beauty and each an example of democratic art, were exhibited yesterday at the Corcoran Gallery of Art under the auspices of the National Cathedral Association.

Complete scenes of Rheims Cathedral, which now stands crumbled in ruins; the Tower of Babel, a part of Rouen Cathedral which was built by money from the French people, who went without butter; Florence Cathedral, Italy, a structure built of red-colored marble stones, and St. Peter's Cathedral, home of the Pope, are some of the pictures on exhibition.

During the world war Capt. Garibaldi was cited for bravery by three nations. Just recently he was dismissed from active duty of the Italian army as a result from a throat wound he received in action.

Miss Hope McMichael is a niece of former Judge Charles B. McMichael, of Philadelphia.
Senator Victor Roland-Ricci, ambassador from Italy, and Miss Italy Garibaldi, sister of the groom, will be present.

Pretty Actress Affirms Truth Of Engagement

Cupid played through his cohort, sickness, and scored a bullseye in the heart of Miss Irene Williams, pretty prima donna of the "Ermine" company, who broke down during the Washington run and was confined to her hotel with peritonitis.

At her bedside in the Hahnemann Hospital, in Philadelphia, where she was taken from the Hotel Washington a few days ago, Arthur E. H. Jackson, Philadelphia lawyer, put aside in business-like style rumors that there was nothing to his engagement to Miss Williams. And Miss Williams said nothing about the rumors being fake, either.

"The wedding will take place as soon as this young lady is on the road to recovery," said Jackson.

"I'm going to give up everything except concert work," said Miss Williams.

"AM in a day's work," said Cupid.

TAFT AT HAMPTON'S 53RD ANNIVERSARY

Ex-President and Other
Prominent Men Speak
At Exercises.

HAMPTON, Va., April 14.—William Howard Taft, president of the Hampton Institute board of trustees, spoke at the fifty-third anniversary exercises today on "The Discipline of Labor and Character Building."

Mr. Taft stated that the absence of any real interest in work, or the desire to make it efficient, as well as the lack of loyalty to the service, present one of the great difficulties in the labor problem today.

"I believe that legislation," said Mr. Taft, "may be more or less helpful in increasing among men the equality of opportunity, but the question is: Have men the courage, character and foresight individually to improve that equality of opportunity? It is in the ability of labor that men find the chief hope of improving that opportunity."

Addresses were also made by Dr. Sara W. Brown, of Washington, who was graduated from Hampton in 1887; President Nannie H. Burroughs, of the National Training School for Women and Girls, Washington; and Bishop James DeWolf Perry, of Rhode Island.

Among those attending the anniversary are Francis G. Peabody, Cambridge; William Jay Scheffelin, New York; Dr. Talcott Williams, New York; Former Governor Bickett Raleigh and William G. Wilcox, New York. The anniversary closes tomorrow.

Scion of Italian Patriot to Take Bride in D.C. Home

One member of the internationally-known family of Garibaldi, famous since the time of Italian patriot, Garibaldi, will wed an American girl, when Capt. Ezio Garibaldi and Miss Hope McMichael are married tomorrow at 3 p. m. by the Rev. W. Steele, of St. Luke's Parish, Philadelphia, at the Washington home of Mrs. Anne Hoyt, niece of the bride, 1701 Rhode Island avenue.

Capt. Garibaldi arrived in Washington last Saturday, having been stationed for the last three months in Mexico City with an Italian mission.

RUSSIAN RELIEF TABLEAUX CHARM LARGE AUDIENCE

Applause For Feature of Entertainments For Refugees.

"Perfectly exquisite" almost describes the tableaux vivants shown at the Russian Embassy last evening for the benefit of the Russian refugees, who were driven from their native land by the Bolsheviks.

Words can't begin to describe the loveliness of every single tableau, each one lovelier than the one before.

They were staged and directed by Albert Sterner, the prominent New York artist, who is certainly to be congratulated on last evening's entertainment, one of the several features of a series of social entertainments held under the auspices of the Washington branch of the American Central Committee for Russian Relief, of which Mrs. Robert Lansing is permanent chairman and Mrs. Sherman Miles, vice chairman.

Buda and Matrons Take Part.
The participants in the tableaux were all prominent buda and matrons in society and representatives of the various embassies and legations, which added to the interest.

The scenery was made especially for the pictures, and in each case was perfect in detail, and the lighting effects were delightful. The handsome, spacious drawing-rooms of the embassy made a lovely setting for the brilliant throng.

The audience was composed of all of the elite who were not included in the pictures. It was a very representative gathering, among those present being the Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, the Peruvian Ambassador and Mme. Pezet, the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Le Bon; the Cuban Minister, Gen. de la Guardia, the United States Minister to Switzerland and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mr. Marshall Field, Henry de Bach, counselor of the Russian Embassy, and Mme. de Bach; Prince and Princess Gagarine, Mrs. Livingston Farrand, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Mrs. Wilfrid Dupuy, Admiral and Mrs. H. H. Rousseau.

Netherlands Counselor Present.
W. H. de Beaufort, counselor of the Netherlands Legation; Dr. J. B. Hubrecht, secretary of the Netherlands legation, and Mme. Hubrecht; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Atherton, Gen. and Mrs. McCawley, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Admiral Newton A. McCully, Mrs. David Barry, Miss Cora Barry, Mrs. Misses Uribe, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor, Maj. George Oakley Totten, Horace Luttrell, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Scully, Miss Isabelle May, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Mayne, Miss Eloise Brown, Miss Mildred Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mrs. Walter Bruce Mow, Mr. and Mrs. Avon Nevius, Mr. and Mrs. Hakan Steffanson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Mrs. Crahan of Seattle, Washington, who is visiting here, Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Culbourn, Capt. Farrbridge, Robert L. Craigie of the British Embassy staff, Maj. C. E. D. Bridge of the British Embassy staff, Mrs. Randolph Minor, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Gert Blair, Capt. and Mrs. William Schwartz, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Robert Hinckley, Mrs. Gladys Hinckley, Senator Walsh, Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., Mrs. Hare Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. William I. Deming, Mrs. F. S. Nash, Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews.

Officers in Audience.
Maj. Harold Raynor, Capt. Cahill, Miss Madeleine Austin, Miss Virginia McKenney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hight, Representative and Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins, Walter Penfold, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Hagner, Comdr. and Mrs. Tom Hagner, Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Noyes, Prince Lubomirski, Mrs. Julian James, Admiral Andrew T. Long, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer and Mrs. King Carley.

The program was as follows:
1. "Spring." Mrs. Richard Emmet, Misses Helen Minnigerode, Sylvia Meredith, Alice Denning, Caroline Jackson, Emma Basson, Marion Kimball and Irene Robbins. Piano by Miss Jeanne Rowen.

Lives to See the Prescription He Wrote in 1892 the Worlds Most Popular Laxative Remedy

DR. W. B. CALDWELL TODAY
Born Shelbyville, Mo., March 27, 1889
Began the manufacture of his famous prescription in 1892

Founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, long past Biblical old age, but hale and hearty—Still sees patients daily—Wonderful achievement of a "country doctor."

WHEN I started to practice medicine, back in 1875, there were no pills or tablets or salt waters for the relief of constipation, and no artificial remedies made from coal tar.

The prescription for constipation that I used early in my practice, and which I put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid remedy, and I have never had reason to change it. I intended it for women, children and elderly people, and these need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

I am gratified to say that under successful management my prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that over eight million bottles were sold by druggists last year proves that it has won the confidence of mothers whose chief interest is the health of their children.

Pharmacopoeia. I consider Syrup Pepsin today in the serious 82nd year of my age, as I did in 1892, the best remedy a family can have in the house for the safe relief of constipation and its accompanying ills, such as headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and I believe if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.
